

NAYJ

Justice for Children in Trouble
www.thenayj.org.uk

NAYJ is a registered charity: Number 1138177

NAYJ is an individual membership organization and welcomes membership applications from anyone who shares our values and supports our aims.

Subscriptions and membership

Full membership of the NAYJ is available for a minimum donation of £18 per person per annum. Full members will enjoy free complimentary electronic access to “Youth Justice”, the leading international journal co-edited by Prof. Barry Goldson (University of Liverpool) and Prof. John Muncie (Open University) and published by SAGE. As e-subscribers, full members of NAYJ will enjoy online access to the journal’s extensive back catalogue. Full members will also have voting rights at the Association’s Annual General Meetings and will be able to vote or stand in elections to the Board of Trustees. Full members will also qualify for discounted rates at all NAYJ conferences and events.

NAYJ is also now offering free Associate Memberships to those who support the Association’s aims and values but who do not require access to the journal and do not wish to have voting rights. Associate members will receive all NAYJ communications and may qualify for discounted rates at NAYJ conferences and events.

Please note that Membership donations from UK tax payers are eligible for Gift Aid. This increases the value of your donation by 20% so please tick the relevant box on the form below if you are a UK taxpayer.

To join NAYJ, please complete the attached form and return as indicated.

Please note that NAYJ complies with data protection requirements and will not share your information with any other bodies.

Thank you for your support for children in trouble with the law.
